ARTICLE 7 - Intellectual property rights and use of photographs

Each participant declares to be the author of the submitted photo (s). The author of a photograph undertakes to respect the right of intellectual property and to involve only images made by him alone. He also acknowledges having previously obtained the necessary authorizations for their distribution, including identifiable persons in the photos. In case of proven fraud, the author will be purely and simply excluded from the competition without notice.

The author authorizes the Salon Photo Riedisheim to reproduce and distribute his work in the sole context of the promotion of the contest and the resulting exhibition, in digital and paper, on its website and Facebook page, without compensation of some kind.

ARTICLE 8 - Liability

The organizers can not be held responsible in case of partial or total loss of the digital data or the cancellation of this contest in case of force majeure or if the circumstances required it. Participants have the right to withdraw or correct their personal data. The Salon Photo Riedisheim can not be held responsible for technical malfunctions such as line interruption, network, server problem, etc. that could prevent the delivery of images. The Salon Photo Riedisheim can not be held responsible if, for any reason, the photo of a candidate can not be viewed or can be managed as expected. The accidental loss or destruction of a file by the organization can not give rise to any compensation. Participation in the contest can not give rise to any compensation, reimbursement or financial compensation.

ARTICLE 9 - Obligations

By participating in this contest, the author declares to accept and respect without reservation the present rules by digital signature when registering online.

Failure to do so will result in the cancellation of the application. Any dispute concerning the interpretation and application of these rules will be considered by the organizers, who are sovereign in their decision, in the spirit that prevailed in the design of the contest.
